NOTE—Contn. sheet.

The Financial Secretary who was consulted in the matter of allowing Dr. Seal the benefit of clause 5 of the said article, considers that though under the terms of his engagement, Dr. Seal is permitted to utilise the vacation every year, the privilege given to the Judges of the Chief Court under Clause 5 of Art. 181 (a) of the M.S.R. cannot be made applicable to him if he remains in the State because he has work to do.

I am inclined to think that a rigid application of the rules issued in Government Order dated 27th August 1921 above referred to, may not be insisted upon in the case of Dr. Seal and that when any vacation is spent by him within the State and Government are satisfied that there was work done, the Vice Chancellor may be allowed to count the period of vacation during which he worked towards privilege leave on full pay and solicit the gracious approval of His Highness to the issue of orders accordingly.
